

8/2020

Kelly Jaszarowski MSN, RN, CNS, CWOCN

WOCN Past President

Kelly Jaszarowski MSN, RN, CNS, APN, CWOCN is an advanced practice registered nurse with over 35 years of nursing experience; 30 of which have been in the field of WOC nursing. She received her Masters of Science in Nursing from Indiana University. She completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Illinois at Springfield. Ms. Jaszarowski is a graduate of Jewish Hospital School of Nursing and the Abbott Northwestern Enterostomal Therapy Nursing Education Program. She has been the recipient of the Excellence in Clinical Practice Award presented by the Delta Omicron Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau recognizing her expertise in the specialty. Additionally, she has been a two time award recipient of the Most Educational Enterostomal Therapy Nursing award as well as the recipient of the ET Nurse of the Year awarded by her peers. She has been featured in Who's Who in American Nursing, Biltmore Who's Who, and the National Dean's List.

Ms. Jaszarowski has served as an expert witness for several medical malpractice cases. She is a Clinical Instructor and the Assistant Director of the Wound Ostomy Continence Nursing Education Program at Cleveland Clinic. She has presented on the local, regional, and national levels. She is published and is one of the chapter authors for the Wound Ostomy Continence Nurses Society® (WOCN) Core Curriculum: Wound Management book. She is also a co-author for the chapter on professional practice which appears in all three published WOCN core curriculum books. Her clinical practice expertise encompasses a variety of healthcare settings.

Ms. Jaszarowski has been very active within the WOCN serving both on the regional and national levels. She has served on committees and task forces as well as has fulfilled the role of chair for both. Additionally, she has served on both the regional and national boards of directors. She is a Past President of the Mideast Region. Ms. Jaszarowski is also a Past President of the WOCN.

Kelly Jaszarowski MSN, RN, CNS, APN, CWOCN is an advanced practice registered nurse with over 35 years of nursing experience; 30 of which have been in the field of WOC nursing. She received her Masters of Science in Nursing from Indiana University. She completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Illinois at Springfield. Ms. Jaszarowski is a graduate of Jewish Hospital School of Nursing and the Abbott Northwestern Enterostomal Therapy Nursing Education Program. She has been the recipient of the Excellence in Clinical Practice Award presented by the Delta Omicron Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau recognizing her expertise in the specialty. Additionally, she has been a two time award recipient of the Most Educational Enterostomal Therapy Nursing award as well as the recipient of the ET Nurse of the Year awarded by her peers. She has been featured in Who's Who in American Nursing, Biltmore Who's Who, and the National Dean's List.

Ms. Jaszarowski has served as an expert witness for several medical malpractice cases. She is a Clinical Instructor with the Wound Ostomy Continence Nursing Education Program at Cleveland Clinic. She has presented on the local, regional, and national levels. She is published and is one of the chapter authors for the Wound Ostomy Continence Nurses Society® (WOCN) Core Curriculum: Wound Management book. She is also a co-author for the chapter on professional practice which appears in all three published WOCN core curriculum books. Her clinical practice expertise encompasses a variety of healthcare settings.

Ms. Jaszarowski has been very active within the WOCN serving both on the regional and national levels. She has served on committees and task forces as well as has fulfilled the role of chair for both. Additionally, she has served on both the regional and national boards of directors. Currently, Ms. Jaszarowski is the Immediate Past President of the WOCN Society.