

Bio (short) Shelly King MSN CPNP

Shelly King is a pediatric nurse practitioner at Riley Hospital for Children at Indiana University. She is team lead for the APPs and the manager of the Children's Contenance Center, Shelly has more than 35 years experience in the field of pediatric urology and reconstructive surgery.

Her clinical expertise is in the care of neuropathic bladder, surgical reconstruction of the urinary tract, refractory bladder and bowel disorder, and sacral neuromodulation. She has served the profesional community as advisor to the pediatric urology nurses board, past chair of the organization's section of the AAP, and director of the urodynamic educational course for the Society of Urologic Nurses (SUNA). As adjunct faculty to IU school of nursing, she works with advanced practice students.

Many educational tools for parents and patients were developed by MS. King. To her credit are multiple professional publications, lectures and awards..

Her personal committment is to continence and urinary health in children.